

TEACHING CONTROVERSIAL ISSUES

(WITHOUT BECOMING THE CONTROVERSY)

Sponsored by
The Missouri Bar Foundation

This has become one of The Missouri Bar's premiere events. Over 250 teachers have attended this workshop in the last three years and have learned how to incorporate current and controversial issues in their classes without the teacher becoming the center of the controversy.

When: Wednesday, November 28 12:00 - 5:00 p.m.
Thursday, November 29 8:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Where: Columbia, MO – Marriott Courtyard

Who should attend: Teachers of American government, history, current affairs and law in Grades 7-12.

What will attendees get?

- $50.00 toward substitute reimbursement or $50 toward mileage.
- Lodging and meals.
- Tons of instructional materials ready to use in the classroom.
- Techniques for teaching controversial issues that will help students with the American Government end-of-course exam.

WE ARE ONLY ACCEPTING 35 TEACHERS THIS YEAR.

Please submit this application to Millie Aulbur at The Missouri Bar, P.O. Box 119, Jefferson City, MO 65102 or fax it to 573-635-2811. Questions may be sent to milliea@mobar.org or call 573 638-2250.
