Why You Need This Series

The MoBarCLE How To Series brings you 12 dynamic programs focusing on the basic skills every attorney needs. These telephone seminars are an easy, convenient way to expand your practice. Choose your area of practice, or explore a new one! These programs are designed to help you gain the edge in a variety of practice areas. Register early and take advantage of special discount package savings!

Social Security

12-2 p.m. Central Time
January 12, 2011

Both new and experienced practitioners will be interested in this program. Covering topics you will find useful and practical, the speakers will approach the subject matter from a “nuts and bolts” point of view, giving the participants the benefit of insights gained from their experience with Social Security issues.

Workers’ Compensation

12-2 p.m. Central Time
February 9, 2011

Just starting to practice in the area of workers’ compensation, or need a refresher course? This is a must-have CLE for the beginner and a great primer for the Annual Workers’ Compensation Institute. Experienced attorneys will guide you through the basics of Missouri’s workers’ compensation law.

Jury Instructions - Civil

12-2 p.m. Central Time
March 9, 2011

In Missouri, attorneys are required to use Missouri Approved Instructions (MAI) in any case where the approved instructions apply. Learn essential information necessary to locate and use the appropriate MAI. Get tips for when and how to modify an existing MAI or draft a proper non-MAI instruction.

Criminal Juvenile Justice System

12-2 p.m. Central Time
April 13, 2011

In the juvenile criminal justice system, what rights does the accused have? What are the rights and responsibilities of the parent or guardian? Are there special custody, detention and hearing procedures? What punishment or treatment options are available? Get the basics on what it takes to represent a client in the juvenile criminal justice system.

Health Care Insurance Law

12-2 p.m. Central Time
May 11, 2011

Healthcare financing is becoming a national issue as more states look to extend coverage to all residents, and political candidates from all parties make healthcare reform a key issue. Join this discussion of health plan design and financing, and state and federal regulation of plans. This is a primer for the general practitioner who wants to know about the important issues affecting employer-sponsored health plans.

Mechanic’s Liens

12-2 p.m. Central Time
June 8, 2011

Mechanic’s liens can be powerful collection tools. Learn how to create, perfect, and enforce a mechanic’s lien. Examine the various defenses your client may have to that type of lien. This practical course will also highlight waivers, releases, and assignments of the lien.

Bankruptcy Basics

12-2 p.m. Central Time
July 13, 2011

Learn to file a consumer bankruptcy step-by-step. This program focuses on the documents you need to collect from your clients, and other requirements of the bankruptcy code.

Wills

12-2 p.m. Central Time
August 10, 2011

Learn what information to gather and how to draft a basic will. This program will help you become better prepared the next time a client asks for your help in this area.

Personal Injury

12-2 p.m. Central Time
September 14, 2011

This program focuses on basic personal injury claims. Review the types of personal injury claims and the applicable Missouri law. Our faculty will discuss how to negotiate with insurance companies, and provide other practical tips.

Child Custody

12-2 p.m. Central Time
October 12, 2011

Our faculty will help you draft a basic child custody agreement, review parenting plan guidelines, and give practical advice on how to get the parties to agree and abide by the document. Learn how to handle issues involving the special needs child and impaired parents.

Child Support

12-2 p.m. Central Time
November 9, 2011

Get basic information on Form 14 calculations, support limitations, additions, and exceptions. Learn how to address extraordinary expenses. This program is designed to help the general practitioner, or to be a practical refresher for the family law attorney.

Traffic/DWI/DUI

12-2 p.m. Central Time
December 7, 2011

Law enforcement officials are getting tougher on DWI/DUI defendants. In this basic seminar, expert criminal defense attorneys will provide you with practical information to successfully represent your client on charges of driving while intoxicated (DWI) and driving under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol (DUI) and essential updates on the latest issues in traffic law.

What is a Telephone Seminar?

After registering for the program, MoBarCLE will send you a confirmation notice by e-mail or fax. A few days before the program, you will receive instructions, by e-mail or fax, that will include a toll-free telephone number to call on the day of the seminar, and the web address to download the written course materials. You can listen to the program in your office, home, or car — wherever you have access to a touch-tone telephone.

4 Easy Ways to Register

Register Early!

To reserve space, please register seven days in advance of the seminar you plan to attend. Please make payment by check, credit card or debit card. The Missouri Bar does NOT accept cash.

Register online:

Visit our website and browse our online catalog at www.mobarcle.org

Register by phone:

Toll-free at 1-888-253-6013 or 573-635-4128

Register by fax:

Fax your registration to 573-659-8931. Please include your MasterCard, VISA, Discover, or American Express information.

Register by mail:

Send the completed registration form with payment to The Missouri Bar, CLE Department, P.O. Box 119, Jefferson City, MO 65102-0119.

Course materials:

A few days before the program you will receive instructions by e-mail or fax that will include a toll-free telephone number to call on the day of the seminar, and the web address to download the written course materials. If you prefer not to download the materials, MoBarCLE will mail you a printed copy of the course materials for a $49 fee. You must make that designation on the registration form.

Credit:

Each program qualifies for 2.4 MCLE credit hours. Does not qualify for Kansas credit.

Participation:

At the time of the seminar, call the toll-free number to listen to the program.

Asking Questions:

At the end of the program, you can push a number on your touch-tone telephone and be placed in a queue for questions. When it's your turn, you enter the conference call in a mode that allows your question to be heard by the speakers and the rest of the telephone audience. The speakers will then discuss the question with you.

Cancellations:

We know you are busy! A colleague may attend in your place if he or she could have registered at the same price. If you are unable to attend a program, cancellation of registration must be received in writing by MoBarCLE no later than 2 business days (Monday-Friday) after the program concludes. Otherwise, you will receive the course materials and audio CD in full consideration of tuition paid. Please note: If you cancel your registration after MoBarCLE sends you the link to download the course materials, a refund will be issued less the fee for the downloadable course materials.

Note:

The "Telephone Seminar" requires a touch-tone telephone.
